REMEMERANCE DAY
CEREMONY - RECAP

3D Art 11 & 12 S1 Needle felted wool & wire

Remembrance day is just behind us and like every year, the ceremony was unforgettable. Even though the day is over, the effects of war so continue to threaten us. It is important to never forget the horrors that tormented our past. We represented these many perils through different art pieces.

Chilliwack chambers open about Indigenous issues

Credit to The Chilliwack Progress

The Chilliwack Chambers of Commerce held the second annual Conversations with Indigenous Leaders at the The'i:Tseliya Health Centre on Wednesday. The Chilliwack Chamber of Commerce had two special guests attend the event. Maynard Harry (KWA'ST-en-ayu) and Stewart Alsgard (Qoqoq) took turns at the lectern speaking about especially important topics including politics, the colonizing of Canada and racist history, and how it all relates to business leaders today.
